Each $7,000 award will cover the cost of a three-credit course in either program. This new scholarship opportunity for graduate MSPW & MSTI Students is named the Malkemes Scholarship now available to newly admitted students entering each degree program each academic year. This award supports students entering their first year of studies.

The option to request a comp day (or two days, if working both days), with the $25 Campus Cash per shift. Perks for Volunteers:
- Free lunch during their shift.
- Free NYU SPS t-shirt or hat.
- $25 Campus Cash per shift.
- Access to NYU SPS facilities and services.
- Opportunities to engage with faculty, staff, and students.

The 5th Annual Women in Real Estate Symposium will be held in person on October 13, 2022 at the New York Hilton Midtown. This national event serves as a critical mentorship platform for women executives and the next generation of leaders. Please join us for the event at the New York Hilton Midtown.

FAA 707: Students can now complete FAA 707: Interpreting, either online or in person, to advance their careers in the legal field.

New Initiatives in move-in activities; the announcement of an interim academic director for PALA; in-person registration for the New Career Pathways Bridge Program.

STAFF/FACULTY HIGHLIGHTS

Alberto Escobar, BBA ’18, leaves the NYU SPS Undergraduate Counseling Center to become the 826DC summer associate director for College Counseling. Alberto joins us on Monday, August 15.

Catherine Artman, School of Professional Studies Undergraduate Counseling Center Manager, is excited to start her new role as interim director of the Counseling Center on Monday, August 15.

In this edition of the Dean's Remarks, we are highlighting opportunities to participate in move-in activities; the announcement of an interim academic director for PALA; in-person registration for the New Career Pathways Bridge Program.

I hope you have all been having a restful, healthy summer. I can already begin to picture the students returning on campus and being warmly welcomed by our move-in volunteers. It is a very special time of year, when the excitement is palpable as students arrive at their residence halls.

As the first on-campus contact for the newest members of our NYU community, your friendly and welcoming presence is deeply appreciated.

We invite you to join us as a move-in volunteer for this upcoming Welcome Weekend. Visit Vision 2025 for more information and to learn how you can make a difference at NYU SPS.

As the academic year starts, I encourage you to look around the campus and see the new staff members who will focus on building our social media outreach; and a new director of admissions for our online programs.

Be sure to catch up with us at the 5th Annual Women in Real Estate Symposium to meet other leaders in the field and network with potential mentors.

The New Career Pathways Bridge Program Expands Access to NYU SPS Undergraduate Degrees for BIPOC Students. The program creates an affordable model that connects academic programming to careers for students from diverse backgrounds.

In an effort to increase transparency, we will be including our monthly KPIs in this newsletter please fill out this form. Have a question for Angie? Submit one via our ASK THE DEAN section.

Each week, you will find stories from our faculty, staff, and students that shape the future of applied professional education and lifelong learning. Meet Laura Pennace, Digital Marketing Specialist. She is the newest member of the NYU SPS communications team for creating this dashboard.

In an effort to increase transparency, we will be including our monthly KPIs in this newsletter please fill out this form. Have a question for Angie? Submit one via our ASK THE DEAN section.

Each week, you will find stories from our faculty, staff, and students that shape the future of applied professional education and lifelong learning. Meet Laura Pennace, Digital Marketing Specialist. She is the newest member of the NYU SPS communications team for creating this dashboard.

In an effort to increase transparency, we will be including our monthly KPIs in this newsletter please fill out this form. Have a question for Angie? Submit one via our ASK THE DEAN section.

Each week, you will find stories from our faculty, staff, and students that shape the future of applied professional education and lifelong learning. Meet Laura Pennace, Digital Marketing Specialist. She is the newest member of the NYU SPS communications team for creating this dashboard.

In an effort to increase transparency, we will be including our monthly KPIs in this newsletter please fill out this form. Have a question for Angie? Submit one via our ASK THE DEAN section.

Each week, you will find stories from our faculty, staff, and students that shape the future of applied professional education and lifelong learning. Meet Laura Pennace, Digital Marketing Specialist. She is the newest member of the NYU SPS communications team for creating this dashboard.

In an effort to increase transparency, we will be including our monthly KPIs in this newsletter please fill out this form. Have a question for Angie? Submit one via our ASK THE DEAN section.

Each week, you will find stories from our faculty, staff, and students that shape the future of applied professional education and lifelong learning. Meet Laura Pennace, Digital Marketing Specialist. She is the newest member of the NYU SPS communications team for creating this dashboard.

In an effort to increase transparency, we will be including our monthly KPIs in this newsletter please fill out this form. Have a question for Angie? Submit one via our ASK THE DEAN section.

Each week, you will find stories from our faculty, staff, and students that shape the future of applied professional education and lifelong learning. Meet Laura Pennace, Digital Marketing Specialist. She is the newest member of the NYU SPS communications team for creating this dashboard.

In an effort to increase transparency, we will be including our monthly KPIs in this newsletter please fill out this form. Have a question for Angie? Submit one via our ASK THE DEAN section.

Each week, you will find stories from our faculty, staff, and students that shape the future of applied professional education and lifelong learning. Meet Laura Pennace, Digital Marketing Specialist. She is the newest member of the NYU SPS communications team for creating this dashboard.