Comprehensive English Program I-20 Application

International students who would like to enroll in our full-time English as a Second Language program at the NYU School of Professional Studies English Language Institute and need a student (F-1) visa must begin by applying for a Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 Form). Students admitted to a degree program at NYU should not use this application form—please contact the ELI for more information. If you are a US citizen, permanent resident, or other visa holder, please call the English Language Institute office at 212-992-8331 to discuss your enrollment.

To receive a Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 Form), you must upload the completed I-20 application and required documents listed below at the following online application system:

- Completed application for Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 Form).
- Copy of passport.
- Affidavit of Support form signed by you or your financial sponsor.
- Bank documents or financial guarantee letters, preferably in English or accompanied by an authorized English translation.
- Non-refundable application fee of $150. The application fee must be paid by credit or debit card. Do not send cash or wire transfers. To submit the $150 application fee via credit card, you must go to: ELI I-20 Application Fee.
- A copy of the $150 application fee payment confirmation.
- For F-1 students currently studying in the US, include copies of your F-1 visa, I-20 form from current or previous school, and I-94 record.

Upon receiving your application and required documents, an acceptance letter and I-20 form will be sent to you to apply for a student (F-1) visa at your nearest US embassy or consulate. To allow for sufficient time to process and send your admission materials, we advise you to submit your application at least six weeks before the start of the program. The acceptance material will be sent to the mailing address provided or emailed to your personal email address on the application. Students who are interested in NYU housing should apply at least three months before the beginning of each semester, as space is limited. Academic records are not required for admission to this program.

We look forward to receiving your completed application and required documentation.

Please read the following statement and sign where indicated.

I understand that New York University reserves the right to refuse admission to any applicant who, in the University's judgment, is not qualified. Similarly, in order to safeguard its ideals of scholarship, character and personal behavior, the University reserves the right to require the withdrawal of any student at any time for any reason deemed sufficient under the rules and practices of the University.

I further understand that admission to New York University's English Language Institute in no way implies admission for academic study for a degree or as a special student to any academic division of NYU. Applicant must be at least 18 years old to be considered for admission.

I understand that the I-20 form is to be used only if I intend to enroll in the ELI at NYU and, I agree to pay a cancellation fee, if I decide not to attend the English Language Institute at New York University after entering the US with an I-20 form issued by this institution.

I certify that the information given in this application is complete and accurate.
