

Faculty & Administrator Guide to the NYUSPS Wasserman Center for Career Development

As faculty and administrators, you have an opportunity to shape how students enter the world of work, advance their careers, and embody the SPS mission of creating future leaders in a global economy.

NYUSPS Wasserman Center for Career Development

The NYUSPS Wasserman Center for Career Development is a resource for students, faculty, and administrators, to ensure students are connecting their academic experiences to their professional and career goals.

4,000+ coaching appointments

conducted annually with SPS students in-person and virtually

35,000 Jobs and internships

posted on NYU CareerNet across the globe

400+ Employers and industry professionals

participate annually in Wasserman at SPS career programs

50+ Virtual webinars

hosted on various industry and career development topics

98.8% undergraduate and 96.8% graduate SPS students from Class of 2017 employed within 6 months

86.1% of SPS students used the Wasserman Center

Student Career Management at SPS

Throughout their lifetime, students will inevitably make several career pivots as they navigate each phase of their career management. The following questions may be integrated into discussions with students as career-related topics arise. Encourage students to continue in-depth conversations with a Wasserman career coach to work through the various stages of career management.

| Self Assessment | Market Assessment | Exploring & Decision Making | Action | Manage | Relationship Management |
|---|--|--|--|---|--|
| What are elements of your professional brand? What about your prior experience motivates you? What are your strengths and skill sets? | What skill sets and experiences are valued in the industries/sectors and roles you are pursuing? | How do your skills, values, and experiences overlap with what the market is seeking? | What are 1-2 effective strategies that you've learned in the market assessment stage that you can apply to your search strategy? | How can you position yourself for continued growth? What skills can you learn to stay ahead of the curve? | How are you keeping your network up-to-date on what you're doing? Have you been working on project that someone in your network would be interested in learning about? |

Partner Together

Be an Industry Expert

Share important industry-specific resources with the Wasserman Center (i.e. professional associations, job boards, blogs) that may help students research career interests. Express your interest in sharing expertise through career programs (both in-person and virtual).

Encourage Students to use the Wasserman Center

Recommend students to partner with the Wasserman Center from day one at SPS to create customized career action plans aligned with their personal values and professional goals.

Refer Employment & Internship Opportunities

Share internship and employment opportunities available to NYU students. All positions shared within the NYU community must be posted on NYU CareerNet.

Cultivate long-term employer relationships with SPS

Refer professional contacts to the Wasserman Center to help expand their engagement with SPS students and get them connected to the NYUSPS network.

We want to hear from you

Let us know how we can support you as it relates to career development needs for our student populations.

Connect with Us

NYU Wasserman Center for Career Development | School of Professional Studies

7 East 12th Street, 5th Floor

New York, NY 10003

T: 212.998.7205

E: sps.wasserman@nyu.edu

www.sps.nyu.edu/career